We are looking for booth holders, artisans, farmers, crafts persons, food vendors and musicians interested in showcasing their work and skills in a festival celebrating rural life and traditions. Help us make this the best community country fair by coming and taking part.

For Vending the fee is $20 or a donation of equal or greater value of your product for a door prizes raffle. Children who would like to set up a small table are welcome as well and we encourage a 10% of sales donation as an alternative to the set table fee.

Tables and chairs are not provided. Set up must be complete at least 30 minutes before the fair opens.

Please fill out the following application and send to us by September 1st.
